

Strap-On Sex/Sensual Humiliation Sample Script

My, you're a lovely little slave-slut, aren't you? You kneel naked before me, your eyes lowered to the ground and I can see the goosebumps forming in a film over your bare skin. For weeks, you've hinted at secret desires that you've kept hidden for so very long. I'm a very observant Mistress, you see. Each time I've played with you, I've picked up on the subtlest of clues in which you yourself are not even aware of. Yes, I can read into your subconsciousness. I know what you crave. And guess what, darling slut-boy? Tonight, you are going to get exactly what you need.

Yes, I've decided to reward you for being such a good submissive boy. You've shown adoration in the way you have used your mouth to worship my boots, toes and feet. You've lovingly licked my sex toys clean after I've used them on other sluts. In fact, I took particular interest in the way you excitedly sucked on the soiled dildos...I saw the way you closed your eyes tightly and wrapped your lips around the cock toy. The way your tongue lapped at it like you couldn't get enough. How your breath came faster and faster as you covered the apparatus in your own saliva, the hunger you exuded like wanted all of that toy in your mouth at once. (laughs) Did you think I didn't notice these things about you? Oh, sweet slut...I notice everything. And I especially notice when a slave exhibits the potential to be transformed into an insatiable, usable, cock hungry whore.

Look up at me now, boy. Do you notice what I have here for you? This is my cock that I have selected especially for you. That's right. Tonight you will show me exactly what it is you are and what you will become for me. Watch me as I stroke this thick, rubber dick....see how I wrap my delicate hands around this heavy cock that nearly begs to be christened by you wet, waiting mouth? Mmmm....I love to jerk off my cock in front of you and watch your eyes grow wider in anticipation and depravity. You so need this, cocks slut. How does it feel when I press the tip of the cock to your lips? You can kiss it for me now. That's a good slave. Kiss the cock that will soon be fucking your face, little bitch. And you know, that your mouth is not the only hole that will be christened tonight, don't you? Ohhh....don't look so frightened! Your Mistress is going to take very good care of you. And before long, you will forget all about the life you've led before this very special night. You will be begging me again and again to stuff my huge cock into every available hole you have. For once I claim you with this cock, there is...no....turning....back.
